COUNTRY WATCH

Western Weekly:

28th November 2013

Colleagues,

I have recently been successful in applying for a temporary promotion. On Monday 6th January 2014 I will take up the role of Strategic Rural Policing Inspector for Hampshire and the Isle Of Wight. I will be responsible for driving forward the rural strategy at force level. The post will be for six months.

Sergeant 882 Debby Holman will be taking on responsibility for leading the Western Country Watch team for the next six months. I will be making relevant introductions to many of you in the coming weeks and will be working alongside Debby until she finds her feet! Debby can be contacted at deborah.holman@hampshire.pnn.police.uk. Debby is new to the role and is rapidly learning just how vast it is. She is looking forward to leading the team and making contact with you all in due course. Please ensure that any future Country Watch related correspondence goes to Debby and not to me.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you for the support you have provided to me during my time on Country Watch, and I know that you will continue to support Debby and the team in the coming months.

I will be working from Lyndhurst Police Station in my new role, and hope that some of you may be able to assist me with some of the new challenges I will face in the coming months.

Louise
