Death in Lymington River is not suspicious

Published: Wednesday, June 5, 2013

Police investigating the discovery of a woman's body in the Lymington River at Brockenhurst are not treating the death as suspicious.

The body of the woman, who is white and middle aged with short dark hair, was found at 9.14am Wednesday, June 5, by an Aldershot man, 37, who was walking in the area.

A red jacket and a pair of black flat women's shoes were found on the river bank.

Police continue their efforts to identify the woman.

Police appeal to identify thieves and warn retailers

Published: Wednesday, June 5, 2013

Police in the New Forest today released photos of two men they need to identify after a series of thefts at leisure centres on Sunday, June 2.

They also urged shopkeepers and other workers in leisure centres throughout Hampshire and the Isle of Wight to be on the lookout for these men.

The two men called at leisure centres in Romsey, Totton, Lymington and New Milton, tricking and distracting receptionists and sales assistants. At each venue, they passed different amounts of money backwards and forwards in an attempt to get change or pay for small items with large denomination notes.

It is believed they netted £150 from the four New Forest leisure centres.

Both men are white. The first is described as 30 years old, 5ft 5ins tall with short blond hair. He speaks with a slight speech impediment and wore a turquoise tee shirt.

The second man is about 40 and taller than the first man. He has a bigger build, dark hair and wore a red baseball cap and a white tee shirt with Adidas written across the front.

PC Lawrence McKenna appealed for identification of the two men:

"These men are committing theft at New Forest Health and Leisure sites. We need to hear from anyone who can identify them.

"We also need to warn staff at other similar venues and retail sites throughout Hampshire and the Isle of Wight to be wary of anyone who tries similar scams. If you become aware of such actions, please ring the police immediately."

Anyone who can identify the men is asked to ring PC McKenna at New Milton on 101. Anyone who thinks there is a scam in progress is asked to ring 999.

COUNTRY WATCH

Western Weekly:

6th June 2013

Colleagues,

Following some good work by our acquisitive crime team, on Wednesday of this week two males appeared at Southampton Magistrates Court and pleaded guilty in relation to theft from motor vehicle in a New Forest car park that occurred earlier this month. They were Nicky Wells, 21 years old from Eyres Way, Salisbury and Blain Furlong, 23 years old from Netherhampton Road, Salisbury. The case was adjourned until 26th June 2013 for sentencing.

Yesterday the Country Watch team carried out Stay Under 40 speeding operations at two locations across the Forest. In a three hour period they issued twenty-nine tickets for speeds between 46 – 65 mph.

Country Watch Conference Update (19th June 2013):

The final arrangements are being made for the Western Country Watch conference. The team are looking forward to seeing many of you there. It is a rare opportunity to engage directly with the Chief Constable and the Police & Crime Commissioner. The day is packed with speakers on a whole range of rural related topics with many more display stands where you can engage with people about various issues and pick up information leaflets.

Glass collection

New Forest District Council is introducing a new household glass collection service during 2013. The pages below contain information about when the service is being brought to your area, what you can recycle and why we are introducing the new collections.

About the service

Household glass collections are being rolled out across the New Forest over the next year

When will the service start in my area?

Find out when glass collections will start in your town

New containers

Every house will receive a new box to store their glass in

What to recycle

All glass bottles and jars can be recycled but no other glass please

On collection day

Your glass bottles and jars will be collected once every four weeks

Bottles banks

Many of the bottle banks will be staying in place after the start of the collections
