Heavy rain and high winds forecast

Hampshire County Council is issuing advice and guidance to residents as an Atlantic storm is forecast to hit southern counties on Sunday night into Monday morning.

The Met Office has issued a severe weather warning with winds expected to reach between 60-80mph inland and higher off the coast.

Accompanying the wind will be heavy rain. Up to 40mm is forecast which is likely to cause localised flooding and disrupt rush hour travel on roads, rail and ferry crossings.

With trees still in leaf and wet ground there is clearly an increased likelihood of falling trees. Likewise those leaves that are already on the ground may cause localised flooding by blocking gullies and outflows.

Residents in these areas are advised to plan accordingly for potential disruption.

- secure loose outdoor items such as garden furniture or ladders; and bring in as many items as possible that are lying around outside
- securely fasten doors, windows, loft trapdoors and storm shutters
- window sills should be cleared and curtains be drawn to protect against flying glass
- vehicles should be parked in the garage, if available; otherwise they should be kept clear of buildings, trees, walls and fences.

The County Council has contingency plans in place and says it is geared up for the worst.

Hampshire highways emergency response teams have extra crews on standby ready to be mobilised for dealing with fallen branches or trees on the highway, flooded roads and blocked drains. Local highway offices are planning to open in the early hours of Monday morning to support any recovery efforts.

The council's teams of Accredited Community Safety Officers will be on hand to provide extra man power if required; Adult Services has a community response team ready to assist the most vulnerable if needed while Property Services have arboricultural teams and building maintenance staff in standby to monitor County Council buildings.

Non emergency flooding on Hampshire Highways can be reported online or by calling 0845 603 5633 during office hours.

People can keep updated on roads affected by severe weather by checking ROMANSE online or following them on Twitter @ROMANSE. Alternatively tune in to BBC Radio Solent and other local radio stations for traffic reports.

Flooding information can also be found online from the Environment Agency

For up to the minute information on the developing weather situation information can be found on the Met Office web pages.

If anyone has concerns about any older or vulnerable people in their community during times of adverse weather, they should call: 0845 603 5630.

COUNTRY WATCH

Western Weekly:

17th October 2013

Colleagues,

During the last week the three Country Watch Sergeants from across the force area met to discuss operational equipment. It is important that we equip our officers with appropriate kit to enable them to carry out the tasks required of them. Chief Inspector Rowlinson has compiled a 'wish list' and will be submitting a funding bid.

We are still experiencing thefts from outbuildings. The majority of them are committed by forcing the padlock. Please ensure that you fit good quality padlocks to your sheds, garages and barns to prevent easy access.

We have also had a few recent thefts of domestic heating oil. Please consider fitting an alarm to your tank that will activate if the flow rate increases significantly.

The Country Watch are able to provide security advice and conduct site visits if required.

Western Weekly:

24th October 2013

Colleagues,

This week I had a meeting with the British Deer Society and a representative from our Operational Policing Department to discuss issues around the Humane Animal Dispatch Policy. The meeting provided an opportunity for views to be aired with a view to finding ways that we can all assist each other. A positive meeting that has hopefully paved the way for improved future relationships!

On Monday I hosted another Rural Awareness Training Day at Netley to approximately 50 officers. Unfortunately the first speaker of the day failed to arrive after his car broke down on route. He was due to deliver an input on Countryside management including firearms issues, pest control, lawful shooting activities, poaching, traps and snares and more. Fortunately I was able to put the knowledge I have developed during my time on Country Watch to good use and stepped up to deliver a one hour input with no notes or preparation!

On Wednesday we conducted an operation in conjunction with VOSA at the Beaulieu Road Pony Sales. We checked approximately fifteen vehicles and found defects including faulty lights, no brake-away cable on trailers and failing to display registration plates. It is encouraging to see that we are now stopping fewer vehicles than at previous sales and finding fewer defects. People are starting to ensure their vehicles and trailers are roadworthy prior to bringing them to the sales. Well done!
